NO BLAME IS ATTACHED IN STREET CAR ACCIDENT

Verdict of Coroner's Jury in Street Railway Accident Announced.

"That Joseph Brady came to his death on Sunday, Dec. 5, by a collision of two street cars of the Houghton County Traction company at the Oscoda switch, south of the Oscoda street car station." Signed, P. J. Ryan, William Paul, Alex. Rowe, Cornelius Ryan, Jerry Kelly, and Sam Barkla, jury.

The above was the verdict rendered yesterday afternoon in Coroner Fisher's court by the above jurymen in connection with the violent death of Joe Brady of Houghton, who was killed by being struck by a street car while on his way to Calumet to attend the Elks' memorial services.

In addition to the testimony of Motorman Duncan, Motorman Osborn and Conductor Sam Stanlake, the two latter of the regular car that collided with the special, other witnesses who testified were Dr. S. S. Lee of Oscoda, Russell Wilcox, conductor on the through car, Walter Bloomfield, one of the injured passengers, and Peter Faltonen, Joseph Chopp and Sam T. Payne, all passengers on the through regular car, and Attorney H. Wieder, who was a passenger on the special car. No additional evidence of importance was brought out beyond that published in last night's News.

NEWS OF THE DAY IN LOCAL JUSTICE COURTS

Henry Rautionen was arrested this morning, charged with being a drunkard. He pleaded guilty and Justice Jackola sent him to jail for thirty days.

Justice Jackola suspended sentence this morning on Peter Miller, charged with non-support, on the promise of the defendant to be of good behavior in the future. Complaint was brought by the man's wife.

The bondsmen of Albert Michaelson, charged several months ago with embezzlement on four counts, who has been awaiting trial in the circuit court, yesterday asked to be released. The request was granted and Michaelson was taken to the county jail.

Henry Rautionen was given a jail sentence yesterday afternoon on the charge of drunkenness.

Stephen Kovach, charged by his wife with attempted murder, will be given a hearing today before Justice Curto.

Mrs. A. H. Martens of Eighth street has left the Calumet public hospital for home, after being treated the past week for throat trouble.

Mrs. Fred J. Hosang of Sixth street has been removed to the Calumet public hospital, where she will undergo an operation.

WINNERS OF THE MOHAWK PINOCHLE TOURNAY DECIDED

Last night's session of games concluded the Mohawk Pinochle tournament. To break the tie which existed between the two leaders for the individual championship and prize the department had the two contestants cut a pack of cards. This resulted in Mrs. James Rhines carrying off the honors. The partners for the final games were then chosen by the person with the highest score choosing from any other player on the board each choosing in turn as they ranked in the percentage column. The teams thus formed are:

Team No. 1, Mrs. James Rhines and Dr. A. R. Tucker.

Team No. 2, Mrs. Willard J. Smith and Willard J. Smith.

Team No. 3, Mr. John Process and Jacob Miller.

Team No. 4, Mr. Oscar Labine and William E. Smith.

Team No. 5, Mr. John G. Bennett and Thomas O'Keefe.

Team No. 6, Mr. Joseph Schoch and August Clements.

These teams met in a series of fifteen games, each team meeting every other team for three games. Four hands constituted a game and the score was marked at the conclusion of the fourth hand. Points were scored to determine the winners without regard to the number of games won or lost. Team No. 6 ran up a score of 1250 in the first four hands played, which figure looked like a record for a long time but team No. 1 finally equalled this record in the eleventh sitting. Team No. 5 has the record low score of 580 in four hands.

The score for each series of three games was:

Team No. 1—Series 1, 2250; series 2, 2750; series 3, 2160; series 4, 2920; series 5, 2490; total, 12,550.

Team No. 2—2750; 2590; 2380; 2770; total, 12,620.

Team No. 3—2440; 2160; 2490; 2520; 2850; total, 12,460.

Team No. 4—2430; 2530; 2300; 2190; 2500; total, 12,270.

Team No. 5—2470; 2220; 2080; 2010; 2370; total, 11,150.

Team No. 6—2890; 2360; 2210; 2840; 2360; total, 12,660.

Team No. 2, composed of Mrs. Willard J. Smith and Willard J. Smith, carried off first honors with team No. 6 composed of Joseph Schoch and August Clements following very closely with a difference of but 360. Although Mrs. James Rhines was declared the individual champion pinochle player of Keweenaw county she failed to land a place on the championship team. She, however, carried away the coveted trophy which was a fancy china dish.

Mohawk Briefs.

Miss Minerva Voelker of Delaware street returned Monday from a few days' visit with relatives in Ojibway.

Mr. William Hart left this week for his home in Eveleth, Minn., after spending a couple of weeks with relatives in Mohawk.

Charles, eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowden, is seriously ill with an attack of appendicitis.

Ice is being rapidly made in the Glaciadom and if the present cold weather keeps up the rink will be opened for skating Saturday.

Rehearsals are being held by the school children of Albion township preparatory to the recital which will take place in the Finnish hall on Saturday evening. A pleasing program has been prepared and will include some of the best local talent. Several recitations will be given by Mrs. Dunstone. Voelker's orchestra will furnish music for the entertainment.

Willard J. Smith left this morning for Marquette where he will spend the next few days.

WEEK OF HANUKKAH.

This is the week of Hanukkah, or the feast of lights, and lights are burned in Jewish homes in commemoration of the relighting of the seven-branched candlestick and the lamps of the temple when it was cleansed after the triumphal re-entry of the Jews into Jerusalem under Judas Maccabeus.

Having secured a competent assistant I am prepared to do work on shorter notice. Gentlemen as well as ladies always receive our best attention. Miss R. M. Baker, Hairdresser, 105 5th street.

DR. JOHN MILLER NAMED MEMBER OF THE COUNCIL

The regular meeting of the Red Jacket village council was held last evening and proved of short duration. The resignation of Trustee J. J. Kaufman, who has removed from this city to the Iron country and is unable to devote sufficient time to the duties connected with his position, was received. The council named in his stead Dr. John Miller, to fill the unexpired term. He will assume his new duties at once.

The report of the annual meeting of the Red Jacket fire department was received and the election of officers confirmed. N. Bianchi was elected to fill the position in the department made vacant by the resignation of C. Messner.

The council adopted an order requiring electrical contractors to report all work done in the village to the electrical inspector.

MARRIED IN A STORE.

The Glass Block store in Duluth was packed to the doors yesterday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Ellen Christenson of Minneapolis and Dr. Benjamin Ridder, the "Millionaire Tramp," says the Duluth Herald.

Rev. J. H. Sternberg performed the ceremony on the third floor of the big building, and the crowd was so dense that the wedding party could scarcely reach the platform.

TO HOLD FUNERAL HERE.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Malorsall of Keweenaw Bay, will be held from the Calumet Finnish undertaking parlors on Fifth street tomorrow afternoon, with services at the Finnish Pine street church, Rev. A. L. Heidemann officiating. Interment will be in Lake View. The decedent is survived by a husband and a grown up family, some of whom reside in Calumet. She was about 59 years of age.

THEY COULDN'T DO IT NOW.

Interesting Cricket Game Played on Tamarack Pitch Saturday.

One of the most interesting cricket games of the entire season was played on the Tamarack pitch last Saturday between two teams captained by E. Morris and Charles Spurr. Outdoor cricket on December 4 is a rare treat in the copper country, and such an exhibition has never been possible before this time. The team captained by Morris won by 22 runs, the score being 56 to 34. The feature of the game was the batting of E. Gerrish who scored 25 runs.
